

Endometriosis Advocates approach government officials about women's health care concerns.

California:

Endometriosis Patient Advocates join other individuals and organizations in Sacramento at the State Capitol in support of AB31 to End The (State) Tampon Tax.

(Above: Jayne Gardner, Endometriosis Patient Advocate)

(Left: Front Row 2nd-4th Endometriosis Patient Advocates:

Lynne LaRocca, Silvia Young (Steering Committee Members) and Jayne Gardner)

Multnomah County, Oregon:

The founder of Extrapelvic Not Rare, a new non-profit focused on education and awareness of endometriosis among the healthcare and public sectors, spoke with the Multnomah County Commissioners in regards to assessment and potential for collaboration with the county's health centers for benefit of those with the disease.

(Above: Wendy Bingham, DPT
Founder, Extrapelvic Not Rare)